No Surprise: Rate Spike Torpedos Refi Apps

Thanksgiving wreaked the usual holiday-related damage on the Mortgage Bankers Association's report of mortgage activity during the week ended November 25. The company's Market Composite Index, a measure of application volume, fell by 9.4 percent on a seasonally adjusted basis compared to results for the week ended November 18. On an unadjusted basis, the Index was down 38 percent. The week's results included an adjustment to account for the holiday.

The Refinance Index fell 16 percent and only 55.1 percent of all applications were for refinancing. That was a decline from 58.2 percent during the previous week, and the lowest share since June.

There was a decline of 0.2 percent in the seasonally adjusted Purchase Index compared to the previous week and the unadjusted index was down 34 percent. The Purchase Index remained 3 percent higher than during the same week in 2015. The average loan size for purchase applications reached a survey high of $312,400.

There was a minor dip in one rate, that of 5/1 adjustable rate mortgages (ARMs). The average contract rate was 3.23 percent compared to 3.24 percent the prior week. Points, however, jumped to 0.44 from 0.28, pushing the effective rate higher. The adjustable-rate mortgage (ARM) share of activity increased to 5.7 percent of total applications, its highest level since last June.

MBA's Weekly Mortgage Applications survey, which has been conducted since 1990, covers over 75 percent of all U.S. retail residential mortgage applications. Respondents include mortgage bankers, commercial banks and thrifts. Base period and value for all indexes is March 16, 1990=100 and interest rate information presumes loans with an 80 percent loan-to-value ratio and points that include the origination fee.
