ALERT: And Now Reprice Risk IS a Potential Consideration

- 10yr yields threatening top of today's range
- MBS would likely follow if it breaks
- We're now right on the threshold of negative reprice risk

Keep a close eye on 10yr yields for a break of the highs of the day. If that happens, MBS would likely come along for the ride, moving more than 4/32nds weaker from some lenders' rate sheet print times. That would bring us into reprice risk territory.
